

Asia Pacific Forum of National Human Rights Institutions

Advisory Council of Jurists

Terms of Reference on Child Pornography

The Asia Pacific Forum members call upon the Advisory Council of Jurists to advise and make recommendations as to the validity of measures taken to regulate child pornography on the Internet.

The Council is asked to have particular regard to whether such regulatory measures can be reconciled with national and international laws guaranteeing the rights to freedom of expression, privacy and freedom of information.